

*Update* Robbery Suspect Angelique Banks Apprehended

Wilmington (19802)- The Delaware State Police have located and arrested 50-year-old Angelique D. Banks of Bear, who was wanted in connection with a robbery.

The incident occurred on March 22, 2019 at approximately 8:10 p.m., when Troopers were dispatched to the Big Lots, located at 4439 Governor Printz Boulevard for a report of a robbery. Upon arrival, Troopers met with two store employees who advised that a female had entered the store carrying shopping bags. The female proceeded to select household goods and conceal them in her bags. Upon the suspect attempting to leave the store without rendering payment, the employees verbally confronted the female. The suspect continued to exit the front doors when she displayed a holstered handgun in her waistband and announced she had a gun. The store employees were able to follow the suspect to the parking lot, where they observed her enter a Black Dodge Durango (pictured) and flee the scene. Through investigative measures, Troopers were able to identify the suspect as Angelique D. Banks.

On March 23, 2019, Banks was taken into custody in the area of 25th Street and Jessup Street, Wilmington without incident. Banks was transported back to Troop 2 where she was charged with two counts of Robbery First Degree in reference to this case and two shoplifting charges in reference to a previous incident. Banks was arraigned before the Justice of the Peace Court and released on $44,000 unsecured bond.
